PREMIER'S TRIP TO WEST COAST.

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, has a busy schedule for his two day visit to the West Coast next Wednesday (October 27) and Thursday (October 28).

Accompanied by Mr. Frank Blevins M.L.C., the Premier will visit Port Lincoln, Streaky Bay and Ceduna and will meet a wide range of community groups.

Discussing his itinerary Mr. Dunstan said he was looking forward to again meeting the people of the West Coast and discussing their needs and problems.

"While I have been Premier I have tried to meet as many South Australians as possible, no matter in which part of the State they live.

"Country areas of the State have special problems caused by the long distances and the higher costs of services and the Government is very aware of those problems.

"It will be a great pleasure to come and talk again with the people of those towns".

Mr. Dunstan arrives at Port Lincoln at 11 a.m. Wednesday and will visit SAMCOR and SAFCOL before lunch. At 1 p.m. he will lunch at the Boston Hotel with the Community College Council and after lunch will go to the College for a series of meetings with local organisations. At 2.45 he will meet the Consultative Council, at 3.30 representatives of the Port Lincoln and North Shields Racing Club and at 4 pm the Scale Fishermen's Association.

At 4.30 pm he will talk with waterside workers before going to a mayoral reception at the Council Chambers.

That night the Premier will speak at a dinner at the Great Northern Hotel organised by the local branch of the A.L.P.

The Premier will leave Port Lincoln at 9 a.m. Thursday and arrive in Streaky Bay at around 10 a.m. He will meet local residents and the Streaky Bay Council before flying to Koonibba Aboriginal Reserve, 25 miles west of Ceduna.

He will arrive in Ceduna at 2.30 pm and meet the local council and other groups before going to a public dinner that evening.
